

ARTS EDUCATION POLICY REVIEW

INDEX FOR VOLUME 103

September/October 2001—July/August 2002

- Allen, James Sloan, "Aristotle: Art and 'The Blessed Life,'" May/June 2002, 27–30.
- Aristotle, "Education in Music," May/June 2002, 31–35.
- Bowman, Wayne D., "Music Education and Post-Secondary Music Studies in Canada," November/December 2001, 9–17.
- Bracley, Karen Kohn, "Dance Education Research: What Train Are We On?" September/October 2001, 27–35.
- Bresler, Liora, "Harry Broudy on the Cognitive Merits of Music Education: Implications for Research and Practice of Arts Curriculum," January/February 2002, 17–27.
- Brewer, Thomas M., March/April 2002, "Integrated Curriculum: What Benefit?" 31–36.
- Brown, Maurice, "Whither, Beauty? Bill Beckley and David Shapiro's Uncontrollable Beauty," May/June 2002, 37–38.
- Consortium of National Arts Education Associations, the Council of Arts Accrediting Association, and the International Council of Fine Arts Deans, "To Move Forward," September/October 2001, 37–40.
- Custodero, Lori A., "Seeking Challenge, Finding Skill: Flow Experience and Music Education," January/February 2002, 3–9.
- Davis, Meredith, "Designing Sisters and the City of Brotherly Love: Nina De Angeli Walls's Art, Industry, and Women's Education in Philadelphia," November/December 2001, 35–37.
- Dorn, Charles M., "Arts Education and the Iron Triangle's New Plan," September/October, 3–11.
- Fichter, Nancy Smith, "The Quest for Center: Creating a Culture for Learning in a Corporate World," May/June 2002, 3–8.
- Gee, Constance Bumgarner, "The 'Use and Abuse' of Arts Advocacy and Consequences for Music Education," March/April 2002, 3–21.
- Gratto, Sharon Davis, "Arts Education in Alternative School Formats," May/June 2002, 17–25.
- Hope, Samuel A., "Policy Frameworks, Research, and K–12 Schooling," July/August 2000, 10–22.
- Howell, Allen C., "Is Secondary General Music a Nonperformance Option?" March/April 2002, 23–28.
- International Council of Fine Arts Deans Symposium on Philanthropy, "Supporting the Base: The State of Arts Education in America, and the Role of Foundation and Corporate Support in Improving It," July/August 2002, 3–9.
- Kaschub, Michele, "Defining Emotional Intelligence in Music Education," May/June 2002, 9–16.
- Lazaroff, Elizabeth M., "Performance and Motivation in Dance Education," November/December 2001, 23–29.
- Mahlmann, John J., "A Fugue without a Theme: Asking a New Question," September/October 2001, 23–25.
- Marantz, Kenneth, "In the Shadows of Giants: Sylvia K Corwin's Exploring the Legends: Guideposts to the Future," March/April 2002, 37–38.
- Marché, Theresa, "Discipline before Discipline-based Art Education: Federal Support, Curricular Models, and the 1965 Penn State Seminar in Art Education," July/August 2000, 25–33.
- O'Brien, Tom, "Wendy Steiner's Venus in Exile: The Rejection of Beauty in Twentieth-Century Art," May/June 2002, 38–39; "A Portrait of the Arts Agency As a Neo-Victorian," September/October 2001, 27–30; "The Importance of Being Earnest," January/February 2002, 35–39; "Goodbye Mr. Clips: Joseph McBride's Searching for John Ford: A Life," November/December 2001, 38–39.
- Schultz, Russ A., "Apples, Oranges, and Assessment," January/February 2002, 11–16.
- Seidel, Kent, "Many Issues, Few Answers—The Role of Research in K–12 Arts Education," November/December 2001, 19–22.
- Smith, Ralph A., "The Arts Endowment and Arts Education: Ideally, What Can Be Done?" September/October 2001, 15–18; "Reflections about Policy during Troubled Times," January/February 2002, 29–34; "Taking the Aesthetic Seriously: Marcia Eaton's Merit Aesthetic and Ethical," July/August 2002, 35–38.
- Tusa, John, "New Labour's New Arts ABC," November/December 2001, 31–33.
- Urice, John K., "An Iconoclast's View of the National Endowment for the Arts and K–12 Arts Education," September/October 2001, 19–22.
- Werner, Robert J., "A Retrospective and the Future," November/December 2001, 3–8.